

Friday 29 November 2013

8.00am	Registration desk opens
9.00am	Morning sessions: Rangitoto/Browns rooms Opening ceremony and welcome; powhiri Address by Hazel Neser , PONZ President
9.30am	Keynote address: Associate Professor Mei Krishnasamy : Screening for need or needing to screen?
10.30am	Morning tea
11.00am	Keynote address: Dr Carrie Lethborg : Fitting together the pieces of the puzzle
12:00pm	Rawiri Blundell and Marie Daly : A support and education programme offered to whānau experiencing cancer in their lives
12.30pm	Lunch During lunchtime in the Rangitoto room: National Child Cancer Network information session about counselling services – see page 14
	Stream one: Rangitoto room	Stream two: Browns room
1.30pm	Andy Leggat and Claire O'Donovan : Evaluation of a psycho-education program for cancer patients and supporters	Rebecca Weeks and Sue Dykes : Evaluating mindfulness based stress reduction as a psychosocial support intervention for haematology patients
2.00pm	Colleen Kendrick : More than exercise: A programme for men with cancer	Dr Richard Egan : Cancer stories. Participatory research process.
2.30pm	Heather Heron-Speirs : The cancer related distress of men from provincial New Zealand	Dr Chris Walsh : Why the puzzle: The role of cancer consumers in psychosocial oncology
3.00pm	Afternoon Tea
3:30pm	Afternoon sessions: Rangitoto/Browns rooms Beth Jenkins and Kristina Marck : Smokefree Auckland
4:00pm	Lisa Reynolds : For fast acting relief, slow down: early data from a randomized controlled trial comparing mindfulness with relaxation on reducing avoidance and distress in chemotherapy patients
4:30pm	Dr Arden Corter : The psychology of side effects & non-adherence among women taking adjuvant endocrine therapy for breast cancer
5:30pm-7.00pm	Drinks and quiz, Attica Bar Presentation of the award for outstanding service to psychosocial oncology in New Zealand

Saturday 30 November 2013

8.00am	Registration desk opens
8.00am	PONZ AGM (breakfast) Great Barrier room
9.00am	Keynote address: Dr Sandy Macleod : Fear and Anxiety in Palliative Care Rangitoto/Browns rooms
10.00am	Morning tea and poster session (in Motutapu room)
	Stream one: Rangitoto room	Stream two: Browns room	Stream three: Motutapu room
10.30am	Keynote session: Assoc Prof Mei	Keynote session: Dr Carrie Lethborg	Keynote session: Dr Sandy Macleod : Psychotherapy near the death-

	Krishnasamy: The development of a cancer care complexity index. What defines complexity?	Using meaning and purpose therapy with people with advanced cancer	bed
11.00am	Amy Munro: Raising hope for haematology patients and their families through information exchange	Gay Dungey: Burnout: Evaluating stress, burnout, and job satisfaction in New Zealand radiation oncology	Leena St Martin: Women's sexual wellbeing after a cancer diagnosis
11.30am	Heather Heron-Speirs: The cancer related coping of men from provincial New Zealand	Sue Wragg: When we see with different eyes and hear with different ears	Kathryn Taylor: Dietary supplement use in cancer treatments: Is there a link to psychosocial wellbeing?
12.00pm	Hazel Naser: Behind the mask: understanding and improving oncology patients' experience of the radiation mask, during and after treatment	Janice Brown: Complexity and challenge par for the course	Olivia Anstis: Understanding patient non-adherence to oral anti-cancer medication
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Panel discussion: Fitting together the pieces of the puzzle Rangitoto/Browns rooms
2.30pm	Poroporaki
2.45-3.00pm	Conference close and presentation of Doug Sexton Award		